

"II Escuela de Verano en Matemáticas Discretas"

Instituto de Sistemas Complejos de Valparaíso -ISCV- Universidad de Chile

Valparaíso, Chile, ISCV, Enero 8 al 12, 2007.

Coordinador: Iván Rapaport <http://www.dim.uchile.cl/~rapaport/>

Postulaciones

La Escuela está dirigida a aquellos alumnos de matemáticas e ingeniería que se interesen en la teoría de grafos, las redes, la combinatoria y los algoritmos. Los cursos estarán orientados tanto a estudiantes de postgrado como a estudiantes finalizando el pregrado. Para reforzar lo visto en clases se propondrá la resolución de tareas. Los candidatos deben enviar un CV (incluyendo el boletín de notas) a redes07@dim.uchile.cl. Se recibirán postulaciones hasta el 1 de diciembre del 2006 (postulaciones fuera de plazo se aceptarán en casos excepcionales). Los alumnos aceptados dispondrán de la ayuda financiera suficiente para cubrir la estadía en Valparaíso.

Cursos

- "Elección futura de líder en sistemas distribuidos con fallas", Antonio Fernández, Universidad Rey Juan Carlos, Móstoles, Madrid, España.
- "Enumeración de grafos etiquetados", Marc Noy, Universidad Politécnica de Cataluña, Barcelona, España.
- "Polyhedral techniques for combinatorial optimization problems", Mourad Baiou, Université Clermont II, France.

ISCV Visitor's Guide

Main Contact:

Beatriz Balmaceda

ISCV Executive Director

E-mail: bbalmaceda@iscv.cl

Telephone: + 56-32-233.92.17

ISCV Address:

Valparaíso Complex Systems Institute -ISCV-

Artilería N° 470, Cerro Artilería, Valparaíso, Chile.

Key data: Paseo 21 de Mayo, Museo Naval

Offices: (For Faculty): You will be given a desk assignment when you arrive. Most ISCV offices are shared with others so please be considerate of your office mates. ISCV has a couple of common areas for discussions. Space can be very limited at ISCV so please check with Beatriz Balmaceda (bbalmaceda@iscv.cl) before inviting a collaborator.

GROUND FLOOR

FIRST FLOOR

Staff: Beatriz Balmaceda (bbalmaceda@iscv.cl) is available to assist you with administrative, housing and transport support during your visit.

Phones and Fax: Telephone calls can be made from the reception near the entrance. When making long distance calls, please use your calling or credit card. Another alternative is to use Skype software which you will find in the ISCV desk computers available. There is no fax service at the ISCV; a scanner machine is available at the reception.

Office supplies: At your arrival, you will be given a folder with the general activities information along with an envelope containing the key of your drawers in your assigned desk (please don't lose it and remember to give it back at the reception when you depart). Your desk will have basic office supplies. If you need additional supplies or other items, see Beatriz Balmaceda at the reception.

Photocopying: Photocopy machine for ISCV-related work is located in the Reception. If you need assistance operating the machine, please ask a staff member.

Internet, Computers and Printers: A couple of shared desk computers will be available, but this can be very limited so please be considerate with your colleagues. WI-FI wireless connection is accessible at the ISCV with two access passwords depending on the floor you are located:

1st Floor: *****
2nd Floor: *****

Online access to the printer machine located at the reception can be reached through the computers as well as from the wireless connection; the main printer is: Pc_1/hp Laser Jet 3020 PCL 5e (in: BEATRIZ en ISCV Beatriz \(Pc_1\)). Before sending something for printing, please check the machine is loaded with enough paper).

i. AV Equipment

ISCV has transparency and Data Show projectors, as well as screens and white boards on site. We do have wall space for poster sessions.

Lunch: ISCV doesn't provide lunches, but there is an attractive offer of good and nice restaurants in Valparaíso:

ISCV Campus Facilities

Entrance Door: The entrance door is usually open from 8:45 a.m. to 6:30 pm weekdays. If you need access during other times, please contact Beatriz Balmaceda bbalmaceda@iscv.cl Library: ISCV maintains little but ever growing library. If there is a book you need from our modest collection, please ask Beatriz Balmaceda at the Reception. ISCV appreciates any donations of your articles or books to our library.

Conference Rooms: Two main conference rooms are available for research-related meetings and Seminars. If you wish to reserve any of these rooms please contact Beatriz Balmaceda bbalmaceda@iscv.cl

ISCV Scientific Interaction

ISCV encourages its researchers to take advantage of our unique, collaborative scientific environment. Multidisciplinary efforts, taking intellectual risks outside the traditional scientific boundaries, are what we expect.

Please introduce yourself to other participants and staff, and take advantage of the opportunities (seminars, informal talks, etc.) to discuss common research interests. We urge you to participate in every scheduled common activity while you are visiting the ISCV.

Please keep your credential always visible as for to facilitate the interaction (this credential will be given to you at your arrival).

You should also consider giving a research talk early in your visit so that other researchers can learn about your interests. You should contact the coordinator of the activity you were invited for.

Any change on the program while your visit or any important message will be notified to your e-mail, please check it regularly.

Please be sure to include the Valparaíso Complex Systems Institute -ISCV- in the acknowledgment section of any published materials generated as a result of your stay at ISCV.
